From The Pastor's Desk

Today we hear in the Gospel the beautiful Beatitudes which are our blueprint for living given to us by Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. I had the opportunity to stay at the mountain or hills where Jesus proclaimed these beautiful words; at the Mount of Beatitudes. How do you feel when you hear these words proclaimed? Does it stir up within you feelings of what can be? Why not take a moment this week to meditate on Jesus' words: Blessed are the poor in spirit. Blessed are the peacemakers. Blessed are the pure of heart, etc. Choose one and make it your own.

Also this week, on February 2 is the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord. The Gospel from the Feast from St. Luke we hear:

When the days were completed for their purification according to the law of Moses, Mary and Joseph took Jesus up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord, just as it is written in the law of the Lord, every male that opens the womb shall be consecrated to the Lord, and to offer the sacrifice of a pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons, in accordance with the dictate in the law of the Lord. LUKE 2:22-24

Simeon, a righteous and devout man, was awaiting the Messiah. And it had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would see the Christ. When Mary and Joseph brought Jesus into the temple he took the Christ child into his arms as he exclaimed:

"Now, Master, you may let your servant go in peace, according to your word, for my eyes have seen your salvation, which you prepared in the sight of all the peoples: a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and glory for your people Israel." LUKE 2:29-32

The Presentation of the Lord is the fulfillment of the prescriptions of the Jewish law by Mary and Joseph. The beautiful Canticle of Simeon, as it is called, sums up the completion of the promise of the covenant between God and his people. How beautifully the prophets such as Isaiah had foretold the coming of the Messiah. Here Simeon brings to life the fulfillment of these prophecies.

BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE AND AWARENESS OF OUR SICK

Thank you for writing your intentions in our Book of Remembrance. There is still the need to announce the names of those who have become sick to the parish.

Since we are all obliged to keep up with our parish life by reading the weekly bulletin, we ask the ill person or family member to notify Linda at 631-728-9461, and their name will be announced once at weekend Masses and published for two weeks in the bulletin. Then we will all be aware of those who are sick and for whom we wish to pray – and contact – if we know them.

Thanks for your generous cooperation and caring for one another.

Dear Parishioners, Volunteers, Friends and Supporters of St. Rosalie's Outreach,

Thanksgiving and Christmas 2016 have passed; but, your generosity, thoughtfulness and kindness will be a lasting blessing throughout 2017.

Every request for a Thanksgiving basket from a community member was met. We were able to feed over 800 people during the month of November...thank you for this blessing.

Over 220 children received a new winter coat, hat, gloves, socks and boots. Your donations of food gift cards totaled nearly $3,200! Each of the 132 registered Christmas Help families, received food gift cards to purchase their Christmas meal. Thank you for this blessing.

Thank you to all who supported St. Rosalie's Outreach especially during Thanksgiving and Christmas. You gave your time, treasure and talents to bless others. Thank you for this blessing.

And dear Outreach/Food Pantry volunteers: You are salt and light to everyone you greet, serve, clothe, and minister to through your gentleness, kindness, thoughtfulness and dedication. Thank you for this lasting blessing.

Rejoice and be glad your reward will be great in heaven, says the Lord.

Amen,

Catherine

LA COMUNIDAD HISPANA

Felices los que tienen espíritu de pobre, porque de ellos es el Reino de los Cielos.

Mt 5.3

Bienaventuranzas – Las bienaventuranzas están en el centro de la predicación de Jesús. Con ellas Jesús recoge las promesas hechas al pueblo elegido desde Abraham; pero las perfecciona ordenándolas no sólo a la posesión de una tierra, sino al Reino de los cielos:

Las bienaventuranzas dibujan el rostro de Jesucristo y describen su caridad; expresan la vocación de los fieles asociados a la gloria de su Pasión y de su Resurrección; iluminan las acciones y las actitudes características de la vida cristiana; son promesas paradójicas que sostienen la esperanza en las tribulaciones; anuncian a los discípulos las bendiciones y las recompensas ya incoadas; quedan inauguradas en la vida de la Virgen María y de todos los santos.

Las bienaventuranzas descubren la meta de la existencia humana, el fin último de los actos humanos: Dios nos llama a su propia bienaventuranza. Esta vocación se dirige a cada uno personalmente, pero también al conjunto de la Iglesia, pueblo nuevo de los que han acogido la promesa y viven de ella en la fe.

El Nuevo Testamento utiliza varias expresiones para caracterizar la bienaventuranza a la que Dios llama al hombre: la llegada del Reino de Dios; la visión de Dios; la entrada en el gozo del Señor; la entrada en el descanso de Dios. (Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica §§1717-1716, 1719-1720)

St. Vincent de Paul Society Reflection

In the Gospel today, Jesus gives us the Beatitudes, which embody a radically alternative vision of life and we find that God indeed calls us to blessedness.

The only thing necessary for the triumph of evil is that good men do nothing. EDMUND BURKE (1729-1797)

Stewardship Reflection

Blessed are they who are what they are and do what they do for the sake of the kingdom!

The Gospel today assures good stewards that their suffering and their service on behalf of the Kingdom will be rewarded.
