From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Today, on the Seventh Sunday of Easter, we hear in the gospel:

*Lifting up his eyes to heaven, Jesus prayed saying:
Holy Father, keep them in your name that you have given me,
so that they may be one just as we are one.*

When I was with them I protected them in your name that you gave me, and I guarded them... JOHN 17:12.

Our Lord goes on to say that: ... I am coming to you. I speak this in the world so that they may share my joy completely.

I gave them your word, and the world hated them, because they do not belong to the world any more than I belong to the world.

I do not ask that you take them out of the world but that you keep them from the evil one.

They do not belong to the world any more than I belong to the world. Consecrate them in the truth. Your word is truth. As you sent me into the world, so I sent them into the world.

And I consecrate myself for them, so that they also may be consecrated in truth. JOHN 17:13-19

Here we hear the beautiful words that He has protected and guarded us. Our God wants us to share His joy completely with Him. And He wants us to be sanctified in the truth. He makes the point that we may be in the world, but yet we are not of the world. That's what it means to be consecrated in the truth: we follow Christ, not the ways of the world with its sights and sounds that do not always reflect the ways of our faith – the ways of Jesus the Christ! A few days ago, we celebrated Ascension Thursday, which is the culmination of the paschal mystery when Jesus Christ returns to the right hand of the Father in Heaven. In another week we will celebrate the Feast of Pentecost we pray that the Holy Spirit will come to us to enlighten and enkindle our hearts with the fire of his love, as He did on that first Pentecost when He came upon the disciples.

Almost 100 children are our 2018 First Communicants and we are preparing about 75 Confirmandi for the Sacrament of Confirmation on October 20. How exciting for our parish and our young people and their families! Blessings!

What's Coming up at St. Rosalie's?

The Parish Gala is not to be missed! The date this year is Saturday, July 14, immediately following the 5 p.m. Mass with the festivities beginning at 6 p.m. I am happy to say that our honoree is our own "Father Paul Dahm." Father is one of the more actively retired priests in our Diocese, beloved by all; from St. Rosalie's in East Quogue to Hampton Bays and all over the East End as well as in those up-island parishes! This year we will use the funds to help do some needed repairs on our Church, in need of painting, etc.

By popular demand, Scotto's will again be catering the dinner; coming back for an encore is Darren Ottati and his band! Silent as well as Chinese Auctions and much more! I appreciate your sponsorship, support and participation. Let's make our parish the best it can be!

*Come Holy Spirit Come!
Father Ed*

God Bless Our Mothers

The priests and staff of St. Rosalie's wish all our mothers a very happy Mother's Day. We will remember your mothers, living and deceased, in our Triduum of Masses beginning today. "God could not be everywhere and therefore He made mothers."

Faith Direct

May can be a busy month. Are you booking travel for Memorial Day? Gearing up for summer vacation? Consider enrolling in eGiving through Faith Direct to make sure your gifts reach St. Rosalie's Church when you cannot, so our ministries can continue uninterrupted. Go to www.faithdirect.net and use our church code NY275. Thank you for your continued support of our parish family!

Elizabeth Ministry

Spring is finally here! The Elizabeth Ministry is in need of spring and summer clothes for girls, size 3T and size 5. Boys summer clothes are needed in sizes 3T, 4T and 6T. Thank you for your generosity.

~ The Elizabeth Ministry Volunteers

The Raphael Social Group

A social group for young adults with special needs for ages 18 years and older is held at St. Rosalie's Parish Center on the third Friday of every month from 6-8:30 p.m. Our next gathering is May 18. Come enjoy board games, karaoke, pizza and socialization. Bring a friend and make new friends. Any questions, please contact Deacon Jim at deaconjimL@optonline.net.

Chinese Auction Donations for the 2018 Gala

Planning for the 2018 Gala is in the works. Last year's Chinese Auction was one of the highlights of the night. We want to make 2018 even more successful. We are now accepting donations for this year's Chinese Auction. Donations can be for services or for brand new gift items. Some examples of donations include: Gift certificates for Manicures, Haircuts, Restaurants, Massages, Golf Lessons, Car Washes, Oil Changes, Housewares, Games, Toys, Wines and Spirits, Art, Bikes, Golf Clubs, Sports Equipment, etc. Nothing is too small to bundle into a gift basket with other items. All donors will have their name displayed near their auction donation.

If you have an item you would like to donate, please call Natalie at 631-813-1096 or email nterilli@gmail.com. Donations may also be dropped off at the Parish Center.

Special Needs Mass

Families who have members with special needs or developmental disabilities often find it difficult to attend Sunday Mass together. We are pleased to provide an opportunity for families to experience God's presence in their lives at a special Mass on the third Saturday of the month, 3 p.m. at St. Rosalie's. The next Special Needs Mass is May 19.

Happy Mother's Day!

Oh Mary, star of the sea, once again we recourse to thee, to find refuge and serenity, to implore your protection and help. Mother of God and our Mother, turn your sweet gaze towards those who face the dangers of the sea every day to guarantee their families the necessary sustenance for life, to protect the respect of creation, to serve peace between peoples.

~ POPE FRANCIS

A Prayer for Mothers

All-loving God,
we give you thanks and praise
for mothers young and old.
We pray for young mothers,
who give life and count toes and tend to
our every need;

May they be blessed with patience and tenderness
to care for their families and themselves with great joy.

We pray for our own mothers
who have nurtured and cared for us;
May they continue to guide
in strong and gentle ways.

We remember mothers who are separated
from their children because of war,
poverty, or conflict;
May they feel the loving embrace of our God who wipes every tear away.

We pray for women who are not mothers
but still love and shape us
with motherly care and compassion.

We remember mothers, grandmothers,
and great -grandmothers who are no longer with us
but who live forever in our memory
and nourish us with their love.

Amen.

Our Lady of the Hamptons School

Now,

more than ever, there is need for a strong Catholic elementary education on the East End! Registration for the September 2018 school year at OLH is open now, with space available in Kindergarten, grades 1 and 5. Space is limited in grades 2 and 3, with waiting lists in grades 4 and 6. Interested families are asked to call for personal appointments and tours.

Placement in the elite OLH Prep program for grades 7 and 8 is at a premium, so early consideration is advised. This program features Regents level courses in Math and Science, as well as an aggressive ELA curriculum, integrated Fine Arts and competitive sports programs in volleyball, basketball, baseball, cross-country and softball. Personal interviews are required.

OLH Pre-school for three and four-year-old children is offered at the campus of St. Rosalie's Church in Hampton Bays. Registration for the 2018-19 school year is beginning now. The OLH Pre-school offers bi-lingual teachers, enrichment in dance, as well as pre-reading and readiness for kindergarten. Tours and conferences leading toward admission can be arranged. Informational packets are available. Call 631-283-9140 to set up a personal appointment and tour. More information is available on the website www.olh.org.

Join Us at St. Rosalie's For A Four-Part Series on The Holy Spirit

*We like the image of the Holy Spirit because we can control it, but the Ancient Celts saw the image of the Holy Spirit as a Wild Goose.
~ Deacon Jim*

Why a Wild Goose?

The Wild Goose was a term that the ancient Celts had for the Holy Spirit.

From the first time I heard this it stirred something in my heart. Yes, there is a wildness to the Holy Spirit. The dominant images of the Holy Spirit are a meek dove or a flickering flame of a candle, both of which are in one way accurate. But the Holy Spirit is more than that. God's Spirit is power and blows not merely like a gentle breeze but at times like a raging wind. Sometimes, this power makes us nervous. We like the idea of the Holy Spirit as a flame on a candle but a raging fire often causes anxiety. Our first instinct is to get it under control. It's hard to control a wild goose; believe me, I know.

In the 19th Chapter of Acts, St Paul meets a group of disciples who "have never heard of the Holy Spirit" (verse 2). I've long been convinced that too many people today have the same sentiment as the people St. Paul encountered. Sure, perhaps most have heard something of the Holy Spirit, but their experience of the Holy Spirit is very limited. The idea of God wanting us to encounter the Holy Spirit, to have a relationship with the Holy Spirit is a foreign concept for far too many people.

The Wild Goose Project is a simple attempt to invite Catholic Christians into a more profound life giving relationship with the Holy Spirit. This is a relationship marked by the love of God which breathes life into our daily existence. The Holy Spirit is not merely something relegated to Confirmation but the Spirit desires a relationship with us that will take us on the greatest adventure imaginable; a journey to the very Heart of God.

The Holy Spirit desires to be present to us in a manner that brings light out of darkness, freedom out of bondage, order out of chaos and life out of death.

Such is the power of the Wild Goose.

SEPTIMO DOMINGO DE PASCUA

Hoy celebramos el Misterio de la Ascensión del Señor. Porque Cristo Jesús bajó a la realidad de nuestro mundo, al dolor de la muerte, por eso subió, por la resurrección, a la gloria del Padre. La Ascensión es la total exaltación. De las lecturas que hoy escucharemos podemos sacar estas dos conclusiones: primera, Cristo Resucitado, es constituido por el Padre, Señor del universo, cabeza de la humanidad y de la Iglesia, que es su cuerpo y plenitud; segunda, el envío misionero, que Cristo transmite a la comunidad: vayan y hagan discípulos.

las Madres!*

FELIZ DÍA DE LAS MADRES

De parte de nuestro párroco, Padre Edward Sheridan, los sacerdotes, los líderes laicos y todos los miembros de la parroquia, les deseamos a todas las madres un feliz día.

The Sisters of St. Dominic of Amityville Celebrate Annual Luncheon

Join us on Friday, June 29, as the Sisters of St. Dominic of Amityville host their 17 Annual Beauty of the Spirit Luncheon at Crest Hollow Country Club in Woodbury, NY.

Each year our luncheon celebrates the beauty of the spirit of women - their strength, compassion, and wisdom. Our guests enjoy fantastic auctions and raffles, as well as an inspirational lecture from a Sister keynote speaker. This year's event will be emceed by News 12 Long Island Anchor and Journalist, Carol Silva.

Proceeds from the event benefit our retired Sisters - the beautiful and dedicated women who have spent their entire lives serving the tri-state area and beyond; now it is our turn to care for them. For more information call 631-842-6000.

St. Vincent de Paul Society

During this month of May (Mary's month), we at St. Vincent de Paul would like to express our sincere gratitude for your kind generosity in the past during our Mother's Day Diaper Drive. Owing to this generosity we have found it unnecessary to have a drive this year.

Your continued support with your contributions to the Poor Box each week enables us to continue our Help of Neighbors In Need program here at St. Rosalie. We are so appreciative of the generosity of you, the parishioners, and the kind assistance of our pastor Father Ed.

SVDP is always looking for new Vincentians to help and all are welcome. We meet in the Parish Center every other Monday. God bless all of you.

Stewardship Reflection

Jesus is the perfect steward, watching carefully over all who had been entrusted to Him by the Father and then sending them all out into the world in service. May I similarly protect and wisely use the gifts entrusted to me!

We are grateful this week for all stewards in our parish who recognize that although each of us has our own unique gifts to share, our mission is the same - to serve others and help build God's kingdom.
