From The Pastor's Desk

Hosanna to the Son of David; Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!

After he had said this, he proceeded on his journey up to Jerusalem. Near the Mount of Olives Jesus sent two of his disciples, He said, "Go into the village opposite you, and as you enter it you will find a colt tethered on which no one has ever sat. Untie it and bring it here. And if anyone should ask you, 'Why are you untying it?' you will answer, 'The Master has need of it.'" So they brought it to Jesus, threw their cloaks over the colt, and helped Jesus to mount. As he rode along, the people were spreading their cloaks on the road; and now as he was approaching the slope of the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of his disciples began to praise God aloud with joy for all the mighty deeds they had seen. They proclaimed: "Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord. Peace in heaven and glory in the highest." LUKE 19:28-40

Palm Sunday is one of those Liturgies in which the mood changes so quickly reflecting that day when Jesus rode triumphantly into Jerusalem! The palm branches and the cloaks are the welcome mat for Jesus and trumpet the jubilation as Jesus enters Jerusalem! When Jesus rode into the Holy City, people were so filled with the fascination and cheering into the Holy City, it appeared he was truly the King hailed and adored by all. As we celebrate Mass on Palm Sunday, 2016, the music, the very tone of the liturgy reflects the loud celebratory Hosannas and is followed at the conclusion of Mass with a solemnity and often silence. Within a few days the happy exuberance of the crowds is turned in to jeers. The crowd is now ready to crucify Him who healed, who touched and who loved. How often they, and we forget! Let us enter into these days prayerfully and reenacting together the beautiful liturgies of Holy Week, which will help us to appreciate more and more fully the mystery of our faith: Christ has died, Christ has risen, and Christ will come again!

Attention Volunteers:

If you are interested to be a new volunteer at St. Rosalie's parish or assisting in related ministries such as St. Vincent DePaul, Maureen's Haven and many others we remind you that all volunteers must register at the Parish Center. If you are a volunteer you should have already registered as one. If you are new and want to become one, you must register. Please see Deacon Chris to file the needed paperwork at the Parish Center to register as a volunteer. Thanks for all you do!

Wednesday of Holy Week:

The Soup Supper is a beautiful way to recognize the simplicity and humility of the Lenten Season and Holy Week and also spend some time with other parishioners having a simple meal and discussion. There will be prayerful music and delicious soups. If you are bringing a soup please call Linda at the Parish Center to let us know.

Holy Land Collection

On Good Friday, our parish will take up the annual Good Friday Collection for the Holy Land. Each day, the news reminds us of the violence and instability plaguing the Middle East, but we rarely hear of the shrinking Christian community there, a community that struggles to remain in the land of Christ's birth, death and resurrection.

Parish Center Closed

We will be closed at Noon on Holy Thursday, March 24, and all day on Good Friday, March 25. St. Rosalie's wishes you a Joyous and Blessed Easter.

Almost There!

Focus Time

This is such a busy season, that I am grateful for the extra time spent in prayer, to help keep me focused!

First Reconciliation

Thanks to our priests, all of our young parishioners have received the Sacrament of Reconciliation before Easter. It is wonderful to see the "lightness" in them after their confession. A great gift of forgiveness!

Respect Life Contest

On March 16, I attended the Respect Life Contest Awards event in St. John the Baptist High School. It is always an inspiring evening, listening and witnessing the ways the teens in our diocese express themselves. This year's theme was: Every life is worth living. As this article was written before the event, I will announce if any of our finalists were winners at a later date. I am very happy that all of the entries we submitted were accepted as finalists! But winning does put a bigger smile on our faces.

Egg Hunt at the Parish Center This Year

The Family Ministry will be hosting the Children's Easter Activity Event on Saturday, March 26, from 10 – 11 a.m. This event is for young parishioners of ages 4-10.

The event will have additional activities this year and will be held this year at the Parish Center. The Family Ministry has planned a great event, so bring your children and grandchildren!! There is no fee. Thank you in advance to the Family Ministry and those who will volunteer to make the Children's Easter Event at the Parish Center, scheduled for Saturday, March 26, a great time for our young parishioners!

Great Work, Catechists!

Our catechists are such wonderful people! They are so dedicated in doing all it takes to help our young parishioners come to know and love God and Jesus better. I will display the students work, in the Church lobby, of their interpretation of this year's Religious Formation theme: "Safeguarding the dignity of every human life." Each level was given a variation on what the theme encompasses. Please remember to look around the lobby to see their work, in the near future.

It will be great to see all of the families at the Easter Masses with their children's smiling faces, recognizing all the Glory in that day and this upcoming season, that they have prepared for.

Thanks Youth Group

Thank you to those of the Youth Group who helped with the outside Stations of the Cross. Thank you to Father Ed, our priests and all who are involved in helping to encourage our young parishioners to be more involved in the Sunday, 9:30 Family Masses.

Give the Glory

It is important to recognize and give honor, glory and gratitude to be Catholic, and fully appreciate this Holy, blessed season and all it offers for us to grow in our faith and holiness.

There are NO RF sessions for any level the week of March 27, Easter Sunday, Monday, March 28 and Tuesday, March 29, except level C2, which meets on Tuesday, March 29 at 7 p.m.

St. Rosalie's Church

HAMPTON BAYS, NY

Dear Parishioners,

The feast of the Resurrection is the celebration of the Paschal Mystery, the central focus of our faith as Catholics. Jesus died and rose from the dead so that we might have life forever!

Having journeyed from Ash Wednesday through these Lenten days of prayer, almsgiving and fasting, we prepare for Easter. As we the Family of Saint Rosalie's complete our Lenten journey, we will now enter the holiest week of year.

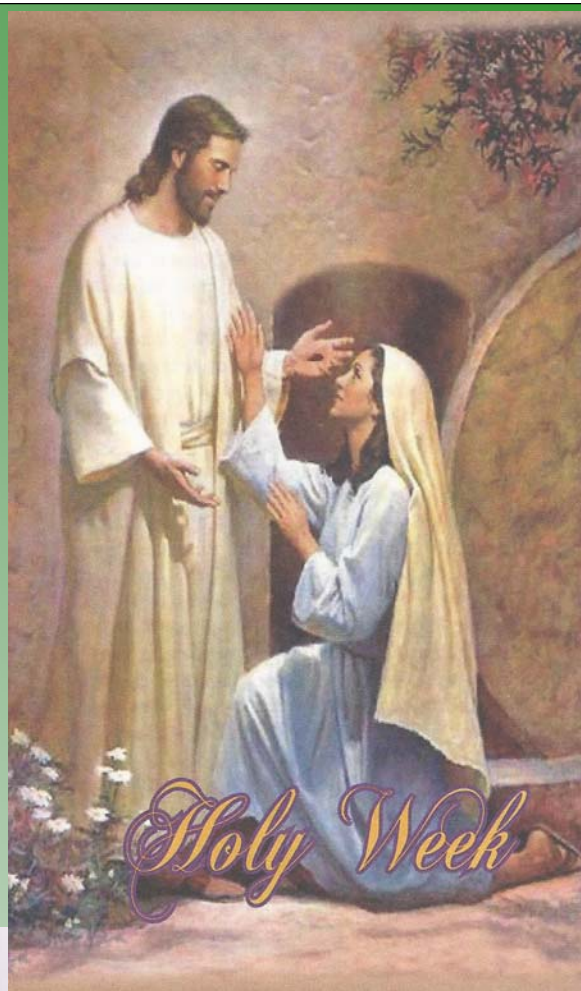

I invite you to join together with our parish family this Holy Week to celebrate the Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday, the Solemn Passion of Our Lord on Good Friday, the Family Outdoor Stations of the Cross on Good Friday and the Easter Vigil Mass on Holy Saturday. This Holy Triduum has such rich Liturgies of our faith. On Easter Sunday morning we will celebrate a sunrise Mass in addition to our regular Mass schedule at the Shinnecock Inlet. I wish Easter Joy and Peace to you and your families as we celebrate this great mystery of our faith: Christ's Resurrection.

With prayers for a Blessed Holy Week and Easter, Mis Oraciones por una Semana Santa Y una Pascua Bendita.

LA COMUNIDAD HISPANA

El Papa Francisco habla sobre la Semana Santa - En esta semana, la Semana Santa, que nos conduce a la Pascua, seguiremos este camino de la humillación de Jesús. Y sólo así será «santa» también para nosotros.

Veremos el desprecio de los jefes del pueblo y sus engaños para acabar con él. Asistiremos a la traición de Judas, que lo venderá por treinta monedas. Veremos al Señor apresado y tratado como un malhechor; abandonado por sus discípulos, condenado a muerte, azotado y ultrajado. Escucharemos cómo Pedro, la «roca» de los discípulos, lo negará tres veces. Oiremos los gritos de la muchedumbre pidiendo que Barrabás quede libre y que a él lo crucifiquen. Veremos cómo los soldados se burlarán de él, vestido con un manto color púrpura y coronado de espinas. Y después, a lo largo de la vía dolorosa y a los pies de la cruz, sentiremos los insultos de la gente y de los jefes, que se ríen de su condición de Rey e Hijo de Dios.

Esta es la vía de Dios, el camino de la humildad. Es el camino de Jesús, no hay otro. Y no hay humildad sin humillación.

Al recorrer hasta el final este camino, el Hijo de Dios tomó la «condición de siervo» (Flp 2,7). En efecto, la humildad quiere decir también servicio, significa dejar espacio a Dios negándose a uno mismo, «despojándose», como dice la Escritura (v. 7). Este «despojarse» es la humillación más grande. Tomado de <http://w2.vatican.va> homilía de 29-03-2015

Ayuno, Abstinencia y Actos de Penitencia para la Cuaresma: Todas las personas que han cumplido los catorce años y los mayores de catorce están obligados a abstenerse de comer carne de res, de pollo, de puerco, etc., el viernes santo. Además, todas las personas desde los dieciocho años de edad hasta los cincuenta y nueve años, inclusivas, están obligadas a ayunar limitándose a una sola comida completa el viernes santo, mientras las otras dos comidas en esos días deben ser ligeras.

NEWSWORTHY

Our Lady of the Hamptons

Advanced tickets and reservations are available now for the Ladies' Luncheon and Chinese Auction that will be held on Sunday, April 10 at the Muses in Southampton. This event is the highlight of the spring season for so many ladies in the community. Please call the school at 631-283-9140 for details.

The registration period leading toward enrollment at OLH for September 2016 is now open. Interested families are invited to request information packets early. Seating on the primary and intermediate grades will be limited, so early interviews are advised. Students seeking admission to kindergarten must be five years of age prior to December 1, 2016. Call 631-283-9140 for details.

A full-certified pre-school program for three and four year old children is offered by OLH at St. Rosalie's parish center in Hampton Bays. Enrollment information is available at the Southampton campus.

We invite parishioners and friends to learn more about Our Lady of the Hamptons by visiting the website www.olh.org. Tours can be arranged at any time, by calling 631-283-9140.

St. Vincent de Paul Society Reflection

Today is Palm Sunday and the beginning of the holiest of Christian weeks. Let us pray for the grace to take up our own cross and to follow Jesus through death to new life. As you place your gift in the Society of St. Vincent de Paul Poor Box, know that you are a sign of God's love to those who carry their cross of suffering and pain.

Stewardship Reflection

In the gospel story of the first Palm Sunday we hear the owners of the ass had only to be told, "The Master has need of it," to give the animal gladly. Do I give as readily to the Lord's work?
