From the Pastor's Desk

“Stay awake for you know not the day nor the hour.” This message we receive for today’s gospel speaks volumes to us on being prepared to meet the Lord. When I first entered the college-seminary around 1973, I remember trying to preach on this particular gospel.

The gospel tells us the story of the ten virgins who went out to meet the Bridegroom. The gospel tells us that five were foolish and five were wise. Five did not have oil to light their lamps. When the Bridegroom came they were not ready. They were not prepared. They were scrambling to find what they needed, in other words, to be ready. As we come closer to the end of the Church year we will start hearing also about the “end times” and being ready to meet the Lord. Let us pray that we will be ready – that we will be well-prepared! Sometimes, I think we all try to be perfect. Let us be faithful and do the best we can in preparing ourselves to meet the Lord. After all, we have a God of love and mercy who loves us so much. As we prepare for the end of the Church year, let us pray for the grace to develop our relationship with God through prayer, through frequent reception of the sacrament of reconciliation and Holy Communion. In this way we will be prepared.

The month of November is usually a time when we remember All Souls – all those who have gone before us. Why not say an extra prayer for those who have gone before us? That prayer unites us with them and assists them in achieving their heavenly reward. One day those souls, as well can intercede for us – they can also assist us by their prayers. Prayer is a beautiful way to stay connected.

Traditionally on All Souls Day priests are permitted to say three Masses. One Mass can be for a particular intention, one for the faithful departed and one for the Pope. On November 2, there were a number of ways to remember our loved ones who have died. We begin the Novena of All Souls, with all the intentions the parish has submitted for remembrance.

The parish’s solemn remembrance of all those who died over the past year were remembered at the November 2 Mass at 7 p.m., an annual tradition here at our parish. Deacon Chris, who planned the evening, worked with the ministry of consolation to read each name amid some beautiful solemn music from our Choir. A carnation was given to every family who participated in remembrance of their loved one. Hospitality was offered as a way to share with each other. Let us continue to pray for all our parish families who lost a loved one.

Another beautiful Fall season here at St. Rosalie’s.

With prayers,
Father Ed

Thanksgiving Baskets

Please remember our community members in need of food this Thanksgiving when shopping for your family. We are gathering the following items: frozen turkeys, stuffing, gravy, canned vegetables (corn, string beans, mixed vegetables), fried onions, cranberry sauce, canned yams, potatoes, desserts, pies, rolls, food gift cards.

This Thanksgiving, let those of us who have much and those who have little gather at the welcoming table of the Lord. At this blessed feast, may rich and poor alike remember that we are called to serve one another and to walk together in God's precious world. God bless and thank you.

St. Rosalie's Parish has a traveling Madonna to encourage devotion to Mary and family prayer. Anyone willing to commit to daily recitation of the Rosary, please call Eileen 631-728-5814 to make arrangements for the statue to visit your home for 1-2 weeks at a time.

St. Vincent de Paul Society at St. Rosalie's

All the clothing and furniture donations stay right here on Long Island, and the money collected from the poor boxes stays for use exclusively by our conference at St. Rosalie's. If you have furniture to donate, please call our SVdP store at 631-858-0380 for an appointment so our truck can make the pick up at your house.

Catholic Campaign for Human Development

Next week, our second collection will be for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. Over 46 million people in the United States live in poverty. This collection supports programs to empower people to identify and address the obstacles they face as they work to lift themselves out of poverty. By supporting this collection, you give people a hand up, not a hand out. Learn more about the Catholic Campaign for Human Development at www.usccb.org/cchd/collection.

Special Needs Mass

Families who have members with special needs or developmental disabilities often find it difficult to attend Sunday Mass together. We are pleased to provide an opportunity for families to experience God's presence in their lives at a special Mass on the third Saturday of the month, 3 p.m. at St. Rosalie's. The next Special Needs Mass is November 18.

Ecumenical Thanksgiving Service

This year, St. Rosalie's will host the Ecumenical Service co-sponsored by the churches in the Hampton Bays community. The service will be held on Monday, November 20, at 7 p.m. There is a group that will be coordinating our parishioners to bake cakes, pies, etc. for the fellowship following the service in our Community Center. Details to follow. Please plan to join us!

I am very happy to announce that St. Rosalie's Divine Mercy Ministry has a new prayer line. The ministry will pray daily for anyone who sends to

St. Rosalie's Religious Formation

Learning to be Sainly

In the beginning of November, our young parishioners, in levels 1 through 6, learned and presented selected saints to each other.

This is a wonderful time of year to recognize all the blessings we have being Catholic. Spending time coming to know our role models, the saints, better, and to spend more time in prayer for those who have left the earth and need us to help them be with God in heaven.

As we draw closer to Thanksgiving, may we be more grateful each day of the year for the blessings God bestows upon us. May we all recognize our need to reach out to others in Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy. Our teens will be involved in performing some Corporal Works of Mercy in our community the coming months. Children of all ages can be taught simple methods of incorporating Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy into their lives, as well as being helped to recognize their good deeds that come from compassion for others are Works of Mercy.

SOUTHAMPTON OCTOBER 30 Mrs. Jennifer Gross and her fourth-grade students presented a special assembly program based on "Test Taking Strategies." This was a musical production that featured the entire class in speaking, acting and singing roles.

The OLH outreach to Academia Maria Reina in San Juan, Puerto Rico reached a special milestone: seventeen cartons packed with supplies and financial donations close to $10,000. This is the result of donations from local and parish members, other local school groups and individual gifts. Funds are forwarded to the Sisters of St. Joseph for relief of the people in the San Juan area. Additional gifts may be sent to OLH and marked "Puerto Rico fund."

OLH Pre-school for young children is offered at the campus of St. Rosalie's Church in Hampton Bays. There has been an outstanding response to the four-year-old program, and registration is now closed for this term. Early registration for the 2018-19 school year is beginning now. Tours and conferences leading toward admission can be arranged. Informational packets are available. Call 631-283-9140 to set up a personal appointment and tour. Stewardship Reflection

Like the sensible bridesmaids in today's parable, good stewards make sure that they, and whatever gifts are theirs to share, stand ready to serve when the Master calls. We are grateful this week for all stewards in our parish who recognize that God's gifts are present in all facets of life and should be used in service to our neighbor and the wider community.

Volunteers Needed!

Centro Corazon de Maria [Heart of Mary Center] is looking for a few volunteers. Centro Corazon de Maria is a ministry to the Latino Community that works out of St. Rosalie Parish. Most tasks are in the morning; duties range from welcome and workshop set up to assisting with child care or tutoring English. All tasks are done with supervision. Hours and amount of time are flexible. Call us at 631-728-5558 or email corazonde-maria1@aol.com with "VOLUNTEER" in the subject line. Please include your name and contact information so we can get back to you.
