From the Desk of Father Maddaloni

The readings today deal with eschatology, the theology of the end of time. They give us the opportunity to consider some of those teachings that often get pushed aside, maybe because they strike us as unpleasant, or as being about things so distant as to be irrelevant to our lives, or as just too difficult to believe.

In the first reading this week, we hear about the final resurrection and the two different ultimate fates of the resurrected: "some shall live forever, others shall be an everlasting horror and disgrace." Quoting the Gospel of John, the Catechism of the Catholic Church confirms this: "Who will rise? All the dead will rise, "those who have done good, to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil, to the resurrection of judgment" (CCC 998).

Every so often, I meet someone who believes in heaven but not hell, who believes that everyone goes to heaven, who believes that how we live our lives and what we do have no effect on our eternal life. These beliefs are contrary to Scripture and the teachings of Christ, as the last paragraph shows.

We are reminded in these teachings that God does not force his eternal friendship on us, but offers it to all who truly embrace it.

Will our bodies really be resurrected? Yes. Why not? The resurrection of the fully human Jesus proves the possibility of our resurrection. Why should our bodies be resurrected? Humans are body and soul. That is our nature. Our bodies are not our possessions to treat as we please. They are part of who we are, and we are God's.

Will the world really pass away? Yes. This reality reminds us that it is not in the material world that we place our hopes, but in the love of God which endures forever.

HAPPY THANKSGIVING!!!

This year, our annual ecumenical Thanksgiving prayer service will be at St. Mary's Episcopal Church in Hampton Bays at 7:00 p.m. on Monday, November 19. It is an opportunity to come together with our brothers and sisters from other Christian traditions to give thanks to our Lord for his many blessings.

On Thanksgiving Day, we will have one Mass only at St. Rosalie's. We will celebrate Mass at 9:00 a.m. Please join us. Feel free to bring food and wine that you plan to serve at your table that day to be blessed.

The Parish Center will be closed on Thanksgiving Day, November 22, and also on Friday, November 23.

May you and your families and friends have a blessed Thanksgiving. May we all remember to keep the spirit of gratefulness to God in our hearts on that day and always.

Happy Thanksgiving,

Father Maddaloni, Father John Wachowicz, Deacon Jim Leopard, Deacon Chris Ervin and the entire parish staff

Saints and Sinners

Well we all start this life as sinners. Through the gift of Baptism, we are changed, transformed. This is the initiation of how we can lead a life that eventually can give us the title of Saint. Many of the saints are role models for us, but they didn't always live a life full of holiness. We tend to fall into what our humanness, our weaknesses, lead us to. Recognizing the potential that each Catholic has to become a saint can change our attitude in all we think, do and say. Our children learned about the lives of specific saints in the past few weeks. We hope they come to know that God sometimes chooses the least likely to lead a saintly life. Nothing is impossible for God, so no matter what their circumstances may be, we probably have some "saints to be" among us!

During this season of giving, I'd like to give thanks to the wonderful, generous people who continually help with 9:30 Mass hospitality. If anyone is willing to help with this ministry, I know it would be appreciated as we always need more than a few committed people to provide this service weekly. The obligation is easy, and it would require your service once a month. Please talk with me, Eileen McPhelin, if you can help.

Thank you to all of our Catechists for the time and love they give to our young parishioners. Thank you to those who responded to our plea lately!

Reminders

There will be No RF sessions on Sunday, November 25.

Level RCIA-Teen meets on November 19, C1 meets on November 20, C3 meets on November 26 and C2 meets on November 27. All Respect Life Entries are due by November 30.

There is a Parent meeting for levels 3, 4, and 5 on Tuesday, November 27 at 7 p.m. in the Church.

May you experience the goodness of God and sense His presence every day and give Him thanks for His blessings!

Our Lady of the Hamptons School

The OLH chapter of the Young Vincentians recently concluded a Socktober Drive and collected three hundred pair of socks that will be distributed through Maureen's Haven. Their aim for November is to collect gently used adult and child coats for Sarah's Closet.

Intermediate students helped to reach out to senior citizens during Halloween celebrations, both with their visit to Hampton care Center and the "reverse trick or treating" at Bishop Ryan Village.

Fathers Janusz Lipski and John Wachowicz concelebrated the All Saints' Day liturgy, prepared by Mr. Christopher Scapellati and his Prep 8 students.

Students cited for their quiet, yet effective leadership in the school community during early autumn included: H. Hanley, A. Curran, A. Micari, T. Gundy, T. Sandoval, J. Martin and H. Springer.

The OLH Prep students were treated to a special lecture and gallery art showing by North Fork painter Charles Wildbank whose works are easily recognizable in local media as well as on the international scene. The students heard the artist as he described his background, his profound deafness and his approach to graphic art. Younger students were also invited to see the traveling gallery of Mr. Wildbank's paintings.

The annual Bucks for Books raffle has gotten an early start, with the drawing of ten prizes ranging from five hundred to ten thousand dollars scheduled for February 2, 2019. Parish and community members are asked to call the school at 631-283-9140 to secure their tickets.

While enrollment for this year is now closed, parents are urged to consider registration for the 2019-20 school year. Materials are available for pick-up or mail. Interviews for next year will begin in late November. Please call the office at 631-283-9140.

Stewardship Reflection

The readings today speak of the end of the world and the coming of the Kingdom. The bishops' pastoral on stewardship says clearly, "that 'life to come' is in continuity with the present life through the human goods, the worthy human purposes which people foster now." May our good stewardship cause us to be numbered among the chosen on the last day!

We are grateful this week for all stewards in our parish who live each day preparing for the coming of the Son of Man.

St. Vincent de Paul Reflection

The Gospel predicts end times; our challenge though is to live faithfully now. When we live in conformity to the Word, hearing Jesus' words and living them out, the future holds no fear for us.

As you place your gift in the Society of St. Vincent de Paul poor box, know that you are hearing the words of Jesus and living them out.

Traveling Catholics

Mass Times was developed to help traveling Catholics worldwide find a nearby church with a schedule of religious services. The information is collected from dioceses and parishes throughout the world and made available via the internet at www.masstimes.org.

Mass Times is a ministry of the Pauline Books and Media, operated by Mass Times Trust, in partnership with the USCCB and has the encouragement of the Vatican.
